DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 7, 14-15, are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Bar-Nun et al.

Regarding claim 7, Bar-Nun et al., discloses a shock tube (tube 10, also see claim 10), with derive section (see figure 1) and extension sections (any of the branch tubes), along with active vent defined by the related valve in the extension sections.

Regarding claims 14-15, the device has plurality of venting valves such that two are connected together with the same manifold.

3. Claims 8-13 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

4. Claims 1-6, and 16-20 are allowed over the prior art of the record.

5. The following is an Examiner's Statement of Reasons for Allowance: The primary reason for allowance of the above claims is that prior art neither teach nor fairly suggest the particular combination of the shock tube as presented in the independent claims 1, and 16. Major emphasis regarding claim 1, is being placed upon the provision of a "shock absorbent material disposed" in a specific location, and regarding claim 16 is being placed upon the provision of the "extension section" being "slidably adjustable" in combination with other limitations of said claims and their dependent ones.

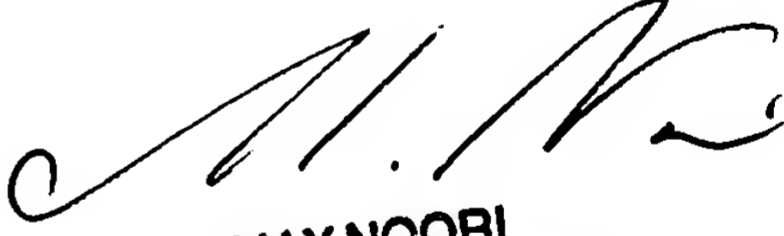

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the Issue Fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the Issue Fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
